SENATOR MARTIN IN A HIGH CLASS

Review of Reviews Places Him With Those Next to Campaign Sineus.

The September number of the American Monthly Review of Reviews makes the following complimentary reference to the National Democratic Executive Committee, taking a separate paragraph in which to refer to Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, who is a member:

"The make-up of the National Executive Committee is strikingly significant of the transformation that has come about in the Democratic party since the last two National campaigns. Mr. De Lancey Nicolai, a well-known corporation lawyer of New York, is vice-chairman of the National Committee as well as a member of the executive group. The other members are Mr. August Belmont, the New York banker and railroad man; Colonel J. M. Giffey, the leader of the Pennsylvania Democrats, known as a petroleum magnate; Mr. John R. McLean, the Ohio millionaire; ex-Senator Smith, of New Jersey, also a man of vast corporation interests; Senator Martin, of Virginia, large to be identified very extensively with large corporations, and Mr. Timothy E. Ryan, of Wisconsin. Senator Ryan, of Maryland, is regarded as a really a member of the committee. Mr. George Foster Peabody is treasurer of the National Committee, and together with the chairman and vice-chairman, is ex-officio a member of the Executive Committee. Nearly, or quite all, of these men were Gold Democrats in 1896, and several of them were in aggressive opposition to Mr. Bryan. Mr. Peabody, in particular, was untiring and of eminent service in securing the victory for sound money."

A PARTY OF FRIENDS DINED BY THE GOVERNOR

Governor Montague entertained a few friends at dinner at the Mansion on Sunday.

day, among whom were Congressman William A. Jones, Mr. Charles V. Meredith, Mr. Henry R. Pollard and Hon. S. S. P. Patterson, of this city, and one or two others. One of the gentlemen present stated that the dinner was merely an informal affair, and that the guests had just "happened in." He stated that there was no sort of conference, but just a pleasant, informal gathering of friends.

COMMITTEES MEET.

Work of Organization Is Now Nearly Completed.

Several municipal committee met for organization at the City Hall last night and in each case the old chairmen were again chosen.

Police, Elections and Schools re-elected Councilman H. C. Glenn, chairman, and Alderman W. H. Zimmermann, sub-chairman.

Alderman J. B. Wood again heads St. John's Burying Ground, while Councilman Joseph C. Dickerson was made sub-chairman.

The Committee on Local Assessments again failed of a quorum. This and the Committee on the Improvement of James River are the only ones yet unorganized.

The Board of Public Interest organized last night. President R. Lee Peters becoming ex-officio chairman. The board rarely meets and has but little to do.

Only One Now Left.

It is a fact not generally known that there is but one living ex-president of the Richmond Board of Aldermen and he is Mr. Joseph C. Dickerson, recently elected to the lower branch from Marshall Ward. Mr. Dickerson voluntarily retired from the Board some ten years ago in order to run for Mayor.

CARNIVAL IN MANCHESTER

The Firemen Working Hard and Successfully in Raising a Guarantee Fund.

CASH DRAWER IS ROBBED

Mrs. Cheatham Reports the Larceny of $40 by a Thief.—Exciting Street Fight.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

A large percentage of the amount asked for by the Hulcher-Adams-Burger Carnival Company has already been secured, and everything looks auspicious for the coming of the carnival. Several large lots have been donated for the big shows which the company carries, and much enthusiasm has been manifested.

Chief Crooks, Assistant Chief Owens, Station Man Smith and Station Man Cotton with Mr. Berger, the Carnival Company's representative, were appointed a committee of five to canvass the town. They met with the surprisingly good results. To-day's canvassing will probably finish the work of securing subscriptions, and it is expected that enough will have been raised to bring the company here.

It is hoped that the Virginia Passenger and Power Company will donate the lighting, and that the town will grant a free license. It has been decided that the shows shall extend from Seventh Street to Cowardin Avenue. The fire department will hold the moon and night when it will be decided whether it be worth while to continue the matter.

Robbed of Forty Dollars.

Mrs. Cheatham, who keeps a millinery store on Hull Street, made complaint yesterday in the police station that some one had robbed her of $40. Mrs. Cheatham claims that the thief was a colored man, but that she would be unable to identify him.

According to her account, she counted $40 in the money drawer, and, turning, left the store to go into a back room. As she came back, she saw a negro disappear from the store. Detective Tomlinson, of Richmond, and the police are hard at work on the case.

Street Fight.

John Carrington and Charlie Watkins, both colored, engaged in a street row yesterday. Razors and rocks were thrown, but so few of foot were the negroes that neither was hurt.

Watkins swore out a warrant against Carrington, who will probably have to appear to-day.

Mr. John Conway, who engaged in an altercation with Mr. J. D. Reams on Saturday and cursed and abused him, was fined $2.00 and ordered to give bond for his future good behavior.

Deaths in Manchester.

Mrs. Edward Reynolds died Saturday night in her home. She leaves a father, husband and three children, two sisters and two brothers.

Mr. A. L. Farmer, who had been ill for such a long time, at length succumbed to a victim of typhoid fever. He is survived by a wife and child. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Central Methodist Church.

Mr. Farmer was a member of Progressive Council, D. of L., of Liberal Council, O. of H., of Stewart Lodge, I. O. O. F., and of Excelsior Council B. of R. C. M.

T. J. Filppen, the one-year-old son of C. S. Filppen, died Sunday in the home of his parents, 312 West Street. The funeral will take place from the house this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. W. E. Hagie, twenty-two years old, died of typhoid fever Sunday in her home, No. 312 East Chancelor Street. She is survived by her husband and an infant child. Mrs. Hagie had been married only a year and leaves a sister ill with typhoid fever in her home in Nineteenth Street. The body will be sent to Macon, Georgia, county, this afternoon.

Personals and Briefs.

Miss Florence Lyon has returned to her home in Clarksville after a visit to friends in Manchester.

Rocky Ridge Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. met last night and elected a new member, Mr. Luck.

Charles M. Friend was in town on business yesterday.

Oak Grove Baptist Church has called Rev. J. R. Faulkner, and he has accepted the call.

A LONG AUTO TOUR.

Party of Lynchburg Motor Enthusiasts Now in Nashville.

Perhaps no trip has been taken to more clearly show the adaptability of the automobile to all kinds of country than the one being taken by a party of automobilists, who arrived in Nashville, Tenn., Friday, having come from Lynchburg, Va.

The party went across the Blue Ridge, Allegheny and Cumberland Mountains, and in the journey have crossed Tennessee three times, passing through Knoxville and Chattanooga. They left Lynchburg two weeks ago, and have ridden 600 or 800 miles.

One of the members of the party stated that the best roads yet seen are in this section. There is no road in the party, Dr. G. M. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Adams, and young daughter, and W. M. Haffner. They went from Murfreesboro to Nashville, arriving about noon, and took dinner at the Duncan.

At 3 o'clock Friday afternoon the party left for Galatin. Their ultimate destination is Bowling Green, Ky., and the trip is purely for pleasure.

The automobilists were travelling in a large white steam touring car, which was covered with the mud of several States. Rainy weather has detracted from the pleasure of the tourists, there having been rain on ten days of the two weeks since they left Lynchburg.

Pastors' Conference.

All pastors of the Baptist denomination are now back in the city, and have begun their work for the fall and winter.

Several pastors have left Richmond and entered new fields. Dr. Weston Bruner, Rev. Mr. Solly, and Dr. Cooper are gone. Rev. Mr. Tucker will leave at the end of the month from the East End.

Rev. Mr. Buchanan, secretary of City Mission, who has just recently arrived in the city, was introduced at the conference and spoke briefly in connection with the work which he expects to do in the city.

There were several visitors, among them being Rev. G. W. McDaniels, of Dallas, Tex., who supplied Sunday at "Old First," and Dr. Wayland Dunaway, Jr., at Glen Allen. Both gentlemen spoke briefly.

Professor Harris, of Richmond College, spoke in behalf of Dr. Nelson in the canvassing that had been done by them during the summer.

There were several additions to various churches of the city last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Ashby Jones has called a reply to the invitation from the church in London, England, to be with them during October and November, saying that for fear of jeopardizing the interests of his own church he would be unable to accept. The congregation all expressed their willingness for Mr. Jones to go, but at the same time appreciated his decision.

Heavy Docket, This.

The fall term of the Law and Equity Court commenced yesterday. Judge John H. Ingram presiding, and the docket was found to be an unusually heavy one. There were one hundred and ninety-nine cases, all of which were set.

The case of Bushy vs. Dawson, Bloomberg and Marks, was fixed for its third trial for December 10th.

The police docket had more small clubs and disorders on it yesterday morning than for a long time. The important cases were few, but the session of the court was a long one.

Disorderly in Theatre.

Julius Williams, colored, went into the Bijou Theatre while drunk and got disorderly. He was put out and arrested, and had to pay Justice John $2.00 and costs.

WAKE COUNTY PRIMARIES

J. C. Ellington Defeats N. B. Broughton by One Hundred.

MUTINOUS SENIORS RETURN

Probably Twenty-five Out of Thirty-five Will be Reinstated. Forcing Telegraph Station.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., September 12.—Practically all the returns from the Wake county Democratic primaries are in tonight, and it is acknowledged that J. C. Ellington has defeated N. B. Broughton for the Senate by at least one hundred votes. The primary was, in fact, a sweeping victory for the "reform" candidates.

FORCING THEM UP.

When the North Carolina Corporation Commission convenes for their regular weekly session to-morrow one of the most important cases to be considered will be a petition from the citizens of Pine Level, on the Southern Railway, near Selma, asking the Western Union Telegraph Company be compelled to establish an office at that place. Indications are that the petition will be granted, and the company ordered to provide an office. The commission will also take up the petition of the commissioners of Wake county for a change in the crossing on the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, on the Lousburg road, about a mile from Raleigh. Several serious accidents have occurred there by running into farmers' wagons.

At the Agricultural and Mechanical College last night the first of a series of services, one each month, to be conducted by the various pastors, was held. Dr. R. P. Bumpass, of the Centenary Methodist Church, officiating. The purpose is to arouse a more intimate interest between the people of the city and the student body of the college.

SENIORS RETURN.

It looks now as though at least twenty-five of the thirty-five mutinous seniors at the Agricultural and Mechanical College will be reinstated, by the college when the recent trouble is finally settled. There are twenty-two already back in regular class work.

To be Presented To-night.

"The following is the cast for the play 'Triss, or Beyond the Rockies,' to be given at the Casino to-night, at 8:30 o'clock, by the Richmond High School Debating Society for the benefit of the Belle Bryan Day Nursery and Free Kindergarten, to be presented to-night.

Frank Jordan, James E. Avery, A. Fortynner, Guardian of Triss. Nat Webber, Warren Portaux, a hero against his will.

Zeke Grimes, Edwin Wortham, Jr., proprietor of "The Root."

Susie Smith, Clara Evans, all learning and books.

Mrs. Robie, Morton Rosenbaum, mother of Triss.

Miss Penelope Prim, Morton Rosenbaum, actress of the Misses.

Henry Staples, the Angel of the Blue Canyon mob.

The young gentlemen of the High School Debating Society deserve encouragement, as it is something heretofore unknown for high school students to work together the entire summer to raise a sum of money to assist in supporting the little ones.

Closing of Tent.

After five weeks meeting in the tent at Grace and Twelfth streets the committee deemed it wise to close them last night. They will be continued next week at Home Memorial church, and the Methodist Institute. There will be services during the week at the former place at 8 o'clock, commencing with a sermon Sunday night by Rev. Mr. Pratt.

Flourished a Knife.

Ada Nash, colored, and two other women went to the Reservoir and got drunk and disorderly. Ada threatened to cut the others and flourished a knife. She was arrested and fined $25 by Justice John and given six months.

"STUMPED!"

Coffee Put Her In Bad Shape.

One of the worst coffee experiences is the case of a Danville, Va., lady, who says:

"I have been married five years and always had good health until the spring after my second child was born in 1901. My health began giving away. I was a coffee drinker, and commenced having many pains about my heart after eating, and was very nervous and kept getting worse until June.

"My physician could not help me, and I took everything I could think of, but kept getting worse; so in August I saw another doctor who said I had nervous dyspepsia, but he did not help me any, and by that time I was so nervous it seemed I would go crazy. I did not have energy for anything, and could hardly eat anything and became so weak I could hardly walk, had to stop nursing my baby, and in September I changed my physician again. The next one said I had female trouble, that I would have to be operated on, but I would not have that, so I kept changing physicians, and some would say one thing and some another, and still I got worse, until December when I commenced with nervous convulsions, and was taken down in bed. My husband got the very best doctors that could be found in our reach. I used stomach pump for twelve months, and was in bed three months straight, and I would get so nervous I could not speak, but I never suspected the coffee. I would go for days and not touch solid food. By March, 1902, I was so nervous I could not eat anything I wanted, had fainting spells; my eyes were so weak I could not do any sewing, and I took bottle after bottle of medicine until last Christmas having heard so much about Postum I decided to try it.

"I commenced using Postum—made it strong and drank it three times a day, and it has made the most wonderful change you ever heard of. It was not long until I stopped using my stomach pump; was not constipated any more, and I have not bought a pill or any medicine since. It completely cured me and not only this, but we all think it a delicious drink—sweet we have ever tasted." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

WYSOR WILL WIN.

Mr. Lyle Says His Chances Are Very Good.

State Senator Lyle, of Roanoke, was in the city yesterday, guest at the Westmoreland Club. The Senator has traveled in the Ninth district considerably during the past few weeks. He says the congressional campaign there between Congressman Slem and Mr. Wyssor is a hot one, but that the incumbent will not secure the certificate of election in November.

"The electorate has changed considerably since the last election," said Senator Lyle, "and I am informed by those that are posted, that Mr. Wyssor's chances for election are brilliant."

Senator Lyle has been to Mercer and McDonald courts in West Virginia, 400, lately.

"These are the heavy Republican counties," he said, "and it looks to me like a cut in the vote, although the Republicans are claiming the State."

Senator Lyle left for his home last night.

WOGGLE BUG CLUB.

Second Crab Feast Was Given at Manhattan Club Saturday.

The Woggle Bug Club gave their second crab feast at the Manhattan Club rooms Saturday night. Manager Jim Munn had secured enough hard shell crabs from West Point to feed a small army, and wogglers and their friends enjoyed themselves hugely.

A neat little toast card had been prepared by President Harry Whitteit, of the wogglers, and various members of the club responded in happy strain.

The toasts were: "How to Raise Children—Dave Kline, of the 'Walt's Paradise' Company; 'How to Get a Scoop'—Blair Meanley, treasurer of the Bijou; 'How to Manage a Ball Club'—George Dally, manager of the Browns; 'How to Shoot a Gun'—T. B. Smith, a well known hunter; 'How to Set Type'—President Whitteit; 'How to Get a Scoop'—Bob Lynn, a well known newspaper man; 'How to Make a Cocktail'—Dave Marshall, an expert from New York; 'How to Run a Hotel'—Fred Atkinson.

Several members of the "Alone in the World" Company were among the guests, including Manager Leon Williams, Boris Leslie, Gule, Beggs, Mulkey and Manager Charlie McKee, of the Bijou.
